4. Senior Citizens Rent Support Program

Pursuant to the 2018 Budget, the Ontario government is committed to support Ontario seniors by increasing rent support for eligible senior tenants. As of April 1, 2018, the Ontario government is increasing rent support by $50 for eligible senior tenants. This will provide additional support to over 130,000 eligible senior tenants.

5. Long-Term Care Home Funding

In 2018–19, the province will invest $822 million, up from $750 million in 2017–18, to support the long-term care sector. This will include increased funding for facilities that meet the standards for accessibility, and to help them better serve elders with dementia. The government is also increasing the rate of funding for capital improvements for long-term care homes, which will help them meet new standards for accessibility.

6. Ontario Works Benefits

The Ontario government is committed to increasing the Basic Income Support for eligible individuals and families. This will help more Ontarians achieve financial security and stability.
